The Board of Governors, Sainik Schools Society, New Delhi, has suggested that the school may collect from the scholarship holders the fees representing the scholarship portion at the beginning of the year itself, in case, there is likely to be some delay in realization of scholarship amount from the Government. The Board of Governors has also suggested that refund to these payments may be made as soon as the scholarship amount is released by the Government. The suggestion of the Board of Governors, Sainik Schools Society will be binding on all the scholarship holders. Hence, the same will be projected as per requirement.

The parents are to furnish the following documents at the time of admission for the award of Tamil Nadu scholarship, if eligible and subject to approval by the Government :-

- a) Tamil Nadu Nativity /Domicile certificate as in the proforma issued by the school.
- b) Application for scholarship.
- c) Income Certificate Part I to Part IV (including unemployment certificate of the father/ mother whichever is applicable.
- d) Bond
- e) Agreement
- f) Declaration that the boy is not in receipt of any scholarship to the concession from any other source.

The documents are to be executed only by the father of the boy. In case father is not alive, mother of the boy should produce a certificate from the Revenue authority not below the rank of the Tahsildar which should indicate the details of the death of her husband, viz., name of the husband, position held by him prior to his death, date of demise, reason for death, name of the wife, name of the boy for whom admission to Sainik School is sought and the fact that the mother is the legal guardian of the boy. The mother of the boy will then be recognized as the legal guardian of the boy and documents can be executed by the mother. In case, father and mother are separated and if the boy is under the legal guardianship of the mother, documents legalizing the separation of husband and wife and conferring the legal status of guardianship to the mother of the boy should be produced. In such an event the mother will be treated as the legal guardian.

The income as on 01 July of the admission year will be the income reckoned for determining the eligibility of Scholarship. The quantum of scholarship that will be sanctioned for the first year will normally be continuing throughout the period of study of the boy in the school, subject to Rules and Regulations of the school. Changes in income in upward direction subsequent to the date of admission will be ignored in case of the merit-cum-means scholarship holders, if approved, by the Government of Tamil Nadu. If revision of income slabs based on Principal's recommendation to the Government is approved for the benefit of the parents in between the course, the scholarships will be reviewed for all the boys and the benefits will be extended to them as a very special case.

The continuance of merit-cum-means scholarship is subject to the satisfactory conduct and progress of the student in the school. These scholarships are liable to be cancelled in case of failure to secure annual promotion or for any other reason, which in the opinion of the Principal may render the retention of the student in the school undesirable.
